

HOW TO LEAVE A LEGACY OF HOPE IN TWO EASY STEPS.

Your legacy is more than the assets you leave behind. It's also a reflection of your values, hope, and love. You can do this in two simple steps:

Make a will.

Everyone needs a will—regardless of how modest or substantial your assets. A will helps you get your financial affairs in order and ensures that your estate will be distributed to your loved ones, according to your wishes.

Consider a charitable bequest in your will.

Making a bequest to a charitable organization is a way of giving back and making a difference in the lives of others.

Whether your gift is large or small, when you give to The Salvation Army, you'll have the satisfaction of knowing you've provided a legacy of aid, comfort, support, and hope to those in need – in your community, throughout New England, and around the world.

Our FREE Will Planning Kit helps you get started.

To help you learn more about the process of making a will and getting your financial affairs in order, we've prepared a handy kit to help you organize your financial information and understand your options for charitable giving.
