

Tom is making a difference, and so can you.

Like Tom, you can leave a legacy that transforms. By the simple act of remembering The Salvation Army in your will or estate plan, you will provide love and support to future generations—to future victims of hurricanes and floods, to the hungry, the homeless, and the abused. Your gift can be the channel for God's grace.

“I didn't give millions to The Salvation Army in my will, but I gave a gift in my late wife's name and that means the world to me.”

— Tom
